ANSWER AND DEFENSES OF DEFENDANT POONI SINGH

Comes now the Defendant, Arvinder Singh Pooni, incorrectly identified in the Amended Complaint as Pooni Singh, (hereinafter “this Defendant”), by and through counsel, and in answering the Amended Complaint exhibited against him answers and says:

FIRST DEFENSE: ANSWER

Answering the allegations of the Complaint, paragraph by paragraph, this Defendant says:

1.

The allegations in Paragraph 1 are admitted on information and belief.

The allegations in Paragraph 2 are not directed towards this Defendant and do not require a response.

3.

The allegations in Paragraph 3 are admitted.

4.

This Defendant admits that the accident occurred in the State of Mississippi but denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 4.

5.

Case: 25CI1:20-cv-00269-AHW Document #: 11 Filed: 09/16/2020 Page 2 of 7

The allegations in Paragraph 5 are admitted.

6.

The allegations in Paragraph 6 are admitted as to where the accident occurred. The allegations as to Plaintiff's residency are admitted on information and belief. Proper venue is also admitted, but it is not admitted that this is the only proper venue.

7.

The first sentence of Paragraph 7 is admitted. This Defendant admits that a collision occurred between his truck and the vehicle driven by the Plaintiff on I-20 in the eastbound lane. The remaining allegations in Paragraph 7 are denied as stated.

The allegations in sentence one of Paragraph 8 are denied as stated other than to admit that this Defendant was driving a B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport truck. This Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny the allegations as to the Plaintiff's physical pain and mental anguish, and those allegations are, therefore, denied.

9.

This Defendant admits he was driving a B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport truck. The remaining allegations are denied as stated, and it is affirmatively stated that this Defendant was a 1099 contractor.

10.

This Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 10 as stated, other than to admit he was driving a B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport truck, and this Defendant affirmatively states that he was a 1099 contractor.

11.

Case: 25CI1:20-cv-00269-AHW Document #: 11 Filed: 09/16/2020 Page 3 of 7

The allegations in Paragraph 11 are denied as stated.

12.

This Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 12 as premature pending full discovery.

13.

The allegations in Paragraph 13 are not directed at this Defendant and do not require a response, but if a response is required or if the allegations are construed adversely against this Defendant, then the allegations are denied.

14.

The allegations in Paragraph 14, including subparagraphs a. through g. are denied as stated. This Defendant will admit that he contributed to the accident but does not admit to the allegations in each subparagraph as stated.

15.

This Defendant denies sentence one of Paragraph 15 as stated. This Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny the Remaining allegations in Paragraph 15, including subparagraphs a. through e, as to the Plaintiff's injuries and damages, and those allegations are, therefore, denied.

16.

This Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 16.

17.

The allegations contained in the unnumbered paragraph beginning with the words "WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED" are denied, and this Defendant specifically denies that the Plaintiff is entitled to any damages or judgment or relief to any judgment against him whatsoever, or, in the alternative, this Defendant denies that the Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment for the amounts and types of claims made.

SECOND DEFENSE

The alleged accident, injuries, and damages may have been caused or contributed to by the culpable conduct of others over whom this Defendant had no control. As to all such persons, this Defendant pleads the apportionment and other provisions of Miss. Code Ann. § 85-5-7.

THIRD DEFENSE

To the extent applicable, this Defendant affirmatively pleads comparative and/or contributory negligence under Miss. Code Ann. § 85-5-7.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The plaintiff may have failed to mitigate damages and damages should be reduced in proportion to the failure to mitigate.

FIFTH DEFENSE

standards; (5) Plaintiff's claim exceeds the legitimate interest of the State in pushing unlawful conduct and deterring its repetition; (6) Plaintiff's claim is grossly excessive in comparison to the civil or criminal penalties that could be imposed for comparable conduct; (7) there is no basis to assume that a lesser deterrent would not adequately protect the interest of the State's citizens; (8) Plaintiff's claim would impose an undue burden on interstate commerce; and (9) for other reasons to be assigned at trial. In the alternative, Defendant asserts the provisions of Miss. Code Ann. § 11-1-65 that are applicable.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Without waiving any other defense set forth herein, and because the facts are not yet fully developed, the Defendant additionally pleads the following affirmative defenses which may be applicable: arbitration and award, accord and satisfaction, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, res judicata, payment and release, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, and waiver. Defendant further reserves the right to assert further affirmative defenses if they become evident through discovery or investigation.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Unless expressly admitted herein, this Defendant denies all allegations of the Plaintiff's Complaint.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

This Defendant reserves the right to assert further affirmative defenses if they become evident through discovery or investigation.

AND NOW, having fully answered the Complaint, Defendant, Pooni Singh, demands judgment dismissing the Complaint with prejudice and awarding costs.

The allegations in Paragraph 6 are admitted as to where the accident occurred. The allegations as to Plaintiff's residency are admitted on information and belief. Proper venue is also admitted, but it is not admitted that this is the only proper venue.

7.

This Defendant admits that a collision occurred between the truck driven by Arvinder Singh Pooni and the vehicle driven by the Plaintiff. This Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny the remaining allegations, and those allegations are, therefore, denied.

The allegations in sentence one of Paragraph 8 are denied as stated other than to admit that this Defendant was driving a B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport truck. This Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny the allegations as to the Plaintiff's physical pain and mental anguish, and those allegations are, therefore, denied.

9.

This Defendant admits that Arvinder Singh Pooni was driving a B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport truck at the time of the accident. The remaining allegations are denied as stated, and it is affirmatively stated that Mr. Pooni was a 1099 contractor.

10.

This Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 10 as stated, and this Defendant affirmatively states that Mr. Pooni was a 1099 contractor.

Case: 25CI1:20-cv-00269-AHW Document #: 14 Filed: 09/16/2020 Page 3 of 7

11.

The allegations in Paragraph 11 are denied as stated.

12.

This Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny the allegations in Paragraph 12, and those allegations are, therefore, denied.

13.

The allegations in Paragraph 13 are denied, including subparagraphs a. through l.

14.

The allegations in Paragraph 14 are not directed at this Defendant and do not require a response, but if a response is required or if the allegations are construed adversely against this Defendant, then the allegations are denied.

15.

The allegations in sentence one of Paragraph 15 are denied as stated. As to the remaining allegations, this Defendant is without sufficient knowledge or information to admit or deny the allegations in Paragraph 15, including subparagraphs a. through e, as to the Plaintiff's injuries and damages, and those allegations are, therefore, denied.

16.

This Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 16.

17.

The allegations contained in the unnumbered paragraph beginning with the words "WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED" are denied, and this Defendant specifically denies that the Plaintiff is entitled to any damages or judgment or relief to any judgment against him whatsoever, or, in the alternative, this Defendant denies that the Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment for the amounts and types of claims made.

SECOND DEFENSE

The alleged accident, injuries, and damages may have been caused or contributed to by the culpable conduct of others over whom this Defendant had no control. As to all such persons, this Defendant pleads the apportionment and other provisions of Miss. Code Ann. § 85-5-7.

THIRD DEFENSE

To the extent applicable, this Defendant affirmatively pleads comparative and/or contributory negligence under Miss. Code Ann. § 85-5-7.

FOURTH DEFENSE

The plaintiff may have failed to mitigate damages and damages should be reduced in proportion to the failure to mitigate.

FIFTH DEFENSE

standards; (5) Plaintiff's claim exceeds the legitimate interest of the State in pushing unlawful conduct and deterring its repetition; (6) Plaintiff's claim is grossly excessive in comparison to the civil or criminal penalties that could be imposed for comparable conduct; (7) there is no basis to assume that a lesser deterrent would not adequately protect the interest of the State's citizens; (8) Plaintiff's claim would impose an undue burden on interstate commerce; and (9) for other reasons to be assigned at trial. In the alternative, Defendant asserts the provisions of Miss. Code Ann. § 11-1-65 that are applicable.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Without waiving any other defense set forth herein, and because the facts are not yet fully developed, the Defendant additionally pleads the following affirmative defenses which may be applicable: arbitration and award, accord and satisfaction, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, res judicata, payment and release, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, and waiver. Defendant further reserves the right to assert further affirmative defenses if they become evident through discovery or investigation.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Unless expressly admitted herein, this Defendant denies all allegations of the Plaintiff's Complaint.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

This Defendant reserves the right to assert further affirmative defenses if they become evident through discovery or investigation.

AND NOW, having fully answered the Complaint, Defendant, B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport, demands judgment dismissing the Complaint with prejudice and awarding costs.

DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO MOTION FOR SCHEDULING ORDER AND TRIAL SETTING

COME NOW the defendants, Arvinder Singh Pooni, incorrectly referred to in the Complaint as Pooni Singh, and B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport, (hereinafter "the Defendants), by and through counsel, to respond to Plaintiff's Motion for Scheduling Order and Trial Setting as follows:

1. The defendants have no objection to the proposed scheduling order proposed by Plaintiff's counsel.
2. However, Plaintiff has not yet specified the amount in controversy such that it is not clear that jurisdiction will ultimately rest in this Court.
3. Defendants recently received written discovery and document discovery from Plaintiff's counsel, and the information received brought into question whether Plaintiff is seeking damages in excess of $75,000. Plaintiff has, to date, failed to specify the amount in controversy.
4. If Plaintiff is seeking damages in excess of $75,000, which is an open question, then complete diversity exists, and the amount in controversy for federal jurisdiction will be satisfied.

5. Assuming federal jurisdiction exists, the defendants intend to move the case to federal court.
6. To clarify this question, the defendants have propounded discovery through Requests for Admission to determine the amount in controversy.
7. Accordingly, entry of a scheduling order is premature until the court of proper jurisdiction is set.
8. That said, the defendants, while preserving their right to assert federal jurisdiction, do not object to the entry of the order.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the defendants, Arvinder Singh Pooni, incorrectly referred to in the Complaint as Pooni Singh, and B4B Trucks, Inc. a/k/a A One Transport, respectfully respond that they do not object to the entry of the proposed Scheduling Order, although it is not clear that jurisdiction will or will not rest in this Court.
